

MISSING PAGE

ORIGINAL DOCUMENT MISSING PAGE(S):

P. 1

ILLEGIB

Approved For Release 2004/05/13 : CIA-RDP91-00965R000400100057-4

[redacted]
Page two

Apparently the Director indicated he would be glad to participate.

6. Attempted to reach Representative Bob Wilson (R., Calif.) but left a message that the EVENING STAR article of 13 April on the model U.S. town for Soviet spy training was not correct. Legislative Counsel went on to state that this story comes up periodically and there is no evidence to support it and we do not believe it to be true. It was indicated this conclusion should not be attributed to CIA.

7.

Talked with Roland Severy in the Bureau of the Budget in connection with H. R. 3007. He was advised that we would have no objection to the addition of the qualifying language which he had mentioned in connection with subsection (E) of Section 4 (a) (1) of Public Law 110. He was also advised that we have several other suggestions in connection with this bill. We are to get together with him in the near future.

8. Advised Mr. Markel of the Senate Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce that we would be pleased to talk with him on the subject of Soviet activity in the field of oceanography. Mr. Markel will call us back to suggest a time.

9. Checked with the Senate Armed Services Committee on the status of S. 300, Senator Saltonstall's bill to amend the Armed Services Procurement Act. The committee staff indicated that reports on this bill were still outstanding and immediate action is not anticipated.

STAT
10. Miss Krupsak in Congressman Stratton's office called to request a copy of the Soviet broadcast of April 13 which mentioned the Congressman. She said a reporter, Mr. Allen Emery, who receives the [redacted] had mentioned this broadcast to the Congressman.

11. Delivered to Miss McShan of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff the duplicate copies of the Albert Kahn and Linus Pauling articles which she had requested together with the article on Anna Louise Strong.